Representative Experience

- » Health Care, Long Term Care, and Assisted Living: Prevailed in a labor arbitration contesting the termination of an employee for improper patient care.
- » Private Club Management: Obtained a favorable result at a federal trial against a plaintiff claiming wrongful termination from a private club on a variety of legal claims.
- » Energy: Obtained summary judgement on all 49 plaintiffs' claims filed in two related lawsuits in the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina alleging various state law contract, quasi-contract, equitable, and tort claims arising from the plaintiffs' terminations following an investigation by the company into employee misconduct. Recently prevailed a second time when two of the plaintiffs unsuccessfully appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, which affirmed the District Court's decision awarding summary judgment in favor of the company and dismissing plaintiffs' claims.
- » Telecommunications, Manufacturing and Service Industry: Represented a national satellite television provider in a disability discrimination claim before the American Arbitration Association. Following arbitration, obtained a favorable award to the client that allowed the plaintiff only a minimal, nominal recovery.
- » Restrictive Covenants and Trade Secrets: Represented several clients in non-compete and trade secret litigation in North Carolina and South Carolina courts involving multiple industries.
