

MEREDITH A. BOX

Associate / Nashville

mbox@fordharrison.com / P: 615-574-7913

Meredith Box dedicates her legal practice to advising and representing management clients facing employment law challenges.

With particularly strong experience in the healthcare, insurance, and transportation industries, Meredith's overarching goal is to craft business-friendly solutions to workplace issues, while also reducing the overall litigation risk to the organization. Prior to joining FordHarrison, she was an associate in the Nashville office of a large national general services law firm. In this role, she focused on healthcare liability litigation, insurance defense, healthcare policy and regulatory matters, wrongful death litigation, and other general liability matters.

While in law school, Meredith served as a Belmont Law Ambassador, a member of the Student Bar Association, and a member of the Health Law Society. In her spare time, Meredith enjoys hiking, snow skiing, and cheering on the Tennessee Volunteers.
