Associate / Hartford

jsbrown@fordharrison.com / P: 860-740-1375

Julianne Brown's legal practice is solely focused on representing management clients in matters related to labor and employment law.

Prior to joining FordHarrison, Julianne served as a law clerk for a general practice firm located in Waterbury, Connecticut. In this role, she obtained experience handling probate, land use, real estate, and trademark & copyright matters including issues in conservatorships, environmental compliance, applications for new building uses, and licensing agreements. Earlier in her career, Julianne served at a labor and employment firm where she attended depositions, hearings, and contract negotiations and performed legal research and drafting.

While earning her J.D., Julianne worked as a media specialist, managing marketing, organizational, and administrative matters, and social media on all channels. She graduated law school with cum laude honors and served as Associate Editor of the Quinnipiac Probate Law Journal. Julianne's legal education was enhanced by international law studies at the Trinity College Dublin School of Law and The Hague Academy of International Law.
